GATHERING OF THE DELEGATES

The Prominent Candidates-Judge Boom-Williams, Fudge

and Marshall-Talk of Dark Horses They Want a Winner.

WYTHEVILLE, VA., August 4.-(Sp cial.)-Wytheville is alive to-night with delegates from all sections of this, the Ninth Congressional District, who will nble in the Church-street Opera-House to-morrow at 12 M. to nominate a Democratic candidate for Congress, From the present outlook the convention will one of the largest ever held in this district. All of the hotels here are crowded with delegates, alternates, and visit ing Democrats. The scene in and around the headquarters of the several candidates is lively indeed.

RHEA'S BOOM.

In the way of streamers, badges, etc. Judge W. F. Rhea, of Bristol, has the greatest boom. Strange as it may appear, there are large delegations here from Bristol for and against Judge Rhea. former claim that if nominated the Judge can carry by a large majority Bristol city and Washington, where there have been great divisions in the Democratic party for several years, while the latter say he cannot unite the factions there, and would or several years, while the latter say he annot unite the factions there, and would use the county. The only probable consesting delegation will come from Abingon. On the action of the convention in his contest will in a large measure deemed Judge Rhea's chances for nomination. If the anti-Rhea men are seated these will certainly lose. will certainly lose

THE OTHER CANDIDATES.

THE OTHER CANDIDATES.

The other prominent candidates are Judge Samuel W. Williams, of Wytheville; Judge George H. Fudge, of Marion, and Judge James W. Marshall, of Craig county. It is rumored to-night that Judge Marshall may not permit his name to go before the convention. Still his many friends are urging him to enter the race. There is some talk of dark horses in the persons of State-Senator Henry S. Kane, of Seott, and General A. L. Pridemore and Judge Charles T. Duncan, of Lee county. Judge Fudge is developing more strength than was anticipated. The four acknowledged candidates, including Judge Marshall, will probably go into the convention with the following vote: Williams in the lead with 65; Rhea a close second, with 60; Marshall third, with 40, and Judge Fudge last, with about 20. WANT A WINNER.

WANT A WINNER.

Though there are so many candidates, still a majority of the delegates are not sommitted to any candidate. They say hey are not here for section, county, or man, but to nominate one who can carry the flag to victory in November. The best of feeling prevails, and everything points to a grand and harmonious convention.

The District Committee have just met and decided upon W. J. Turpin, of Taxewell county, as temporary chairman, and 3. M. Edmonds, of Gate City, as temporary secretary.

PELASKI POLITICS.

3oth Parties Elect Congressional Convention Delegates.

PULASKI, VA., August 4.-(Special.)-The Pulaski Democrats held their massneeting here 'yesterday, 'County-Court day, Colonel James Macgill presiding, and the following delegates were elected to the congressional convention to be held at Wytheville the 5th of August:

Pulaski District—William M. Perkins,
R. H. Glendy, T. L. Massie, D. D. Huli,
Jr., W. F. Howard.
Wassie District—J. Willet Leache, C. C.

Dublin District-R. C. Kent , W. H.

Dublin District—R. C. Kent, W. H. Ricketts, G. W. Miles.
Newbern District—O. E. Jordan, J. W. Pointer, J. F. Calfee, and George Miller.
Alternates—J. R. Simmerson, Dr. George Pointer, W. W. Anderson, James Graham, W. W. Bentley, J. B. Pointer, James Macgill, J. Conway Smith, R. R. Moore, Jr., H. T. Turpin, F. J. Smith; the Dublin delegates to select their alternates.

Chicago platform nominees were who does not stand squarely on the Chi-cago platform. The delegates are sup-posed to be about equally divided be-tween Marshall and Williams, with a few eattering for Fudge

SPEECHES.

Judge Marshall, by invitation, addressed the convention. Mr. W. O. Hardaway, of Roanoke; and Colonel J. R. Miller, of Pulaski; and Elector D. S. Pollock also spoke, all being called upon. Then the crowd called loudly for Mr. J. Williamson McGavock, a former Democrat, but now a leading Populist, who made a fine speech for Biryan and unity. The Demo-crats had a fine day of it, and everything is bright.

THE REPUBLICANS.

The Reoublicans also had their meeting, and elected delegates to their congressional convention. The colored brother was much in evidence in the meeting and on the list of delegates. General Walker made a speech which was out and out for the St. Louis platform, including the gold plank. He practically kicked his old congressonal silver plank from under him.

J. Hampton Hoge also spoke.

Many Republicans here will vote for Bryan and free silver.

Wedding at Hyde Park.

Hyde Park, the lovely country home of Mrs. Martha Fowlkes, in Nottoway country, was yesterday the scene of a quiet and impressive marriage. The contracting parties were Miss Lucy Fowlkes, one of Nottoway's most popular and charming young ladies, and Dr. Frank Fowlkes, a prominent physician of Boston, Mass. The hymneal rites were performed by Professor Cridlin, of the Southwestern Female Institute, after which Dr. and Mrs. Fowlkes left on an extended tour through the north. The bride was the recipient of numerous and costly presents.

Cattle Pens in North Carolina.

Cattle Pens in North Carolina.

Chief Salmon, of the Bureau of Animai Industry of the United Sintes Department of Agriculture, and Mr. Fred. C. Brauer, Jr., of this city, returned yesterday from North Carolina, where they have been for several days looking into the cattle quarantine situation. The result of their trip will be the establishment of quarantine pens at Salisbury, N. C. This will permit the bringing of Western North Carolina and Tennessee cattle over the Southern railroad to Richmond and points North. Between Asheville and this city all the country is in an intected district, and the distance from either Western North Carolina or Tennessee to this city is farther than the law allows cattle to be carried without feeding. The only way that they can be brought until the pens are built is by driving. The pens will be completed in about three weeks. The placing of pens at Salisbury will make the handling of cattle between North Carolina and Tennessee and Richmond as easy as if there was no infected district between Richmond and Asheville, It will enable cattle to be hought here for feeding purposes, which otherwise could not well have been done.

Crowd on the Roof-Garden.

There was a large crowd on the Jefferson roof garden last evening that appliaded, encored, and otherwise displayed their appreciation of the successful endeavors of the performers to entertain them. They, also, enjoyed the music furnished by the orchestra, and the delightful breezes that always sweep the garden.

and sound at Eagle Mountain, in Botetourt county, on the James-River Division of the Chesapeake and Ohio railway. He was captured there yesterday afternoon by Mr. T. M. Moseley, a locomotive engineer, who knew him, and his parents were at once notified by telegraph. Mr. Morton left last night to bring the runaway back to the city. It was supposed that the boy had gone up the Chesapeake and Ohio, and the officials of that road very kindly instructed their employees to look out for him.

A peculiar circumstance connected with the case was the fact that just a few moments before the telegram was reightful breezes that always sweep the garden.

Mattle and Pat Rooney, the clever juvenile dancers and singers, have created a furor by their excellently-done act, which can in all justice be said to be the most decided hit of the season. Vera Harte continues to hold her own with her sweet voice. Jessie Villars, a dashing soubrette; Georgie Howard, with her fancy dances; and the comedy sketch team, Effle Huested and Mabel Guyer, with their cunning dog, have all made pleasing impressions.

Wagon Smashed and Horse Killed.

Early yesterday afternoon Car No. 4 of the Richmond Traction Company ran into a light wagon driven and owned by Mr. Twitchell, near the corner of Thirty-se-cond and Broad streets. The wagon was hadly broken up and the horse was so badly injured that it had to be killed. It seems that Mr. Twitchell, who is a Henrico farmer, had just helped two is-dies from the back seat of the vehicle prior to the collision. This was fortunate.

prior to the collision. This was fortunate, since the car struck the wagon in the portion formerly occupied by the ladies. The norse was thrown from his feet and so badly injured internally that Agent Taylor, of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, shot the animal last night.

Commissioner Flegenheimer had before him yesterday the case of John E. Baker, who conducts a saloon at 1416 tast Main street, and was found on Friday last by Deputy United States Marshal A. J. Pleasants with twenty clgar-boxes on which the revenue stamps were not cancelled. The accused was sent on to the United States grand jury, which meets here in October. Counsel for the accused, Mr. Alexander Coke, waived further examination after the taking of the evidence of the witnesses for the government. It has been developed that Baker's wife conducts a cigar-factory on Eighteenth street, and that all the boxes found with the stamp uncancelled were those of brands manufactured at that place. The defence claims a plea of malicious information on the part of a former employee of Mr. Baker's. Sub-Committee of Retrenchment and Reform-Other Matters.

There was a meeting last night of the sub-committee of the Council Committee on Retrenchment and Reform appointed to look into the affairs of the offices of Delinquent Tax-Collector and the Commissioner of the Revenue. More than a quorum was present, and several features of these offices were thoroughly looked into. The sub-committee were in secret session, and referred some questions to the City Attorney, who will report at the next meeting.

The special Committee on the Reunion held a meeting in the office of City-Clerk August last night, and passed favorably upon a bill of Mr. Pat McDonough's for the care of the camp of veterans from Lynchburg. It had been arranged that this body of old Confederates should stop with Mr. McDonough, who had made arrangements for its members, but the veterans were quartered here as individuals. The committee decided to approve the bill, and adjourned.

The Committee on Cemeteries made its annual tour of inspection of the city burying-grounds yesterday afternoon, and everything was found in good order about these places.

A Pretty Morning Wedding.

A Pretty Morning Wedding.

Yesterday morning at 2:30 o'clock a very pretty wedding took place at No. 220 south Jefferson street. Amidst potted flowers, in a darkened room, beautifully tinted by colors of different shaded lamps, and surrounded by a great number of friends, Miss Nellie Atkins became the bride of Mr. Henry Bendix. The maid of honor was Miss Isabella Atkins, sister of the bride, who was dressed in white crepon. She entered with the bride, preceded by the groom and his best man, Mr. John M. Taylor. They were met at the altar by Rev. Dr. Kerr, who performed the cremony in a beautiful and impressive manner.

The bride was clad in a gray suiting, with chiffon trimmings, with hat and gloves to match, carrying a bonquet of bride's roses. Mrs. Bendix is a very popular young lady, and has a large circle of acquaintances here. The groom is a well-known travelling salesman of this city, and has hosts of friends in the Virginias, Kentucky, Ohio, and Tennessee. The presents were many and beautiful.

The happy couple left at 10:20 last night via the ChesapeaRe and Obio train to spend several weeks at the Sweet Chalybeate Springs and other mountain resorts. They will make this city their future home.

Manager Leath's Minstrel Show.

Manager Leath's Minstrel Show.

A gentleman who saw the first performance of the reorganized Barlow's Minstrels in Petersburg on Monday night said yesterday; "Messrs Leath & Mossley have clearly demonstrated the wisdom of opening the season early, for they have thus been able to enlist the services of some really exceptional talent. There is no dead wood in the combination, and every feature is distinctive. In the head lines are Harry Ward, the comedian, and Mack and O'Day, the negro delineators, who do a very bright and clever act. These are supported by Rilly Eberhardt, the Juggler, Valentine and Weeks, a musical-sketch team, whose playing is far 'above the average; Zella, a really interesting contortionist, and Marion and Pearl, acrobatic comedians of genuine ability.

Vocally, the organization is strong, and the selections admirable, while the minstrel first part is effectively mounted.

The performance on Monday night was noticeable for its smoothness. Of course, there were "spots on the face of the sun," but, happily, not indelible ones, and Mr. Leath, who was before the curtain, took prompt steps to have them removed.

The house was well filled, and the show was quite enthusiastically received.

The police say that there can be no doubt of the fact that the young man was struck by the paddle-wheel when he fell, and this most probably caused his death before he even struck the water.
